This will be a collaborative achievement driven by individuals and businesses who are guided by the moral compass of FAITH. Entrepreneurs and Faith driven individuals are typically individuals who are aware of the gifts they have been given and who want to use them for a greater purpose, a greater good, and they do not do what they can, but who do what it takes and when their ability ends they have FAITH that they will still reach their goal somehow and in some way. They have been given the gifts of vision, determination, tenacity, resilience and a certain portion of grit and who have learned how to make profit out of their passion. Empowering Millions Summit begins a 5 day engagement for this ecosystem of entrepreneurs, leaders, public figures and influencers, to empower individuals through engaging talks, panel discussions, interaction and training how to create sustainable income, amount infinite faith, foster international relationships of reciprocity, investment opportunities for impact and messages for transformation and inspiration that can empower millions world-wide.

We welcome people who operate with the highest level of integrity in business and in life who want to inspire their audiences with stories of faith, excellence and resilience that can empower others in their journey. We seek individuals with a desire to make the world better and who want to achieve greatness for a greater purpose. There is a need for entrepreneurs in this world in order to reshape economies and industries and we want to empower people to succeed in their endeavors and to truly excel through their faith, relationships and resources. The need for excellent entrepreneurs is great and Waddah Barkawi describes it like following in Entrepreneur Middle East Magazine;

Entrepreneurship is fast emerging as a transformational megatrend of the 21st century given its capacity to reshape economies and industries throughout the world. As key drivers of economic growth, entrepreneurs are the lifeblood of any expanding economy, generating jobs, introducing new products and services, and promoting greater upstream and downstream value-chain activities. More than ever before, it is imperative that governments, policymakers and business leaders come together to support and advance entrepreneurship, which has proven to be essential to socioeconomic development worldwide. Increasingly, entrepreneurship occurs not in isolation or in silos, but through collaboration and community. Entrepreneurs are seeking out supportive environments that—through proximity—provide collaboration, culture and resources that spur entrepreneurial activity and reward innovative mindsets.”
